All The World's A Stage And

We, The Players

Foreword

Shakespeare once said, "All the world's a stage, And all the men and women merely players. . . . And one man in his time plays many parts, . . ." Here at Bethel Hill we are playing the part of students. Realizing that this act on the world's stage has passed all too swiftly, we the Seniors of nineteen-hundred and sixty-six, leave to assume our parts as leaders and citizens of tomorrow. With many fond memories to cherish, we the 1966 annual staff, offer this edition of the HILLTOPPER as a record of the happy events which occurred during this phase of our lives.

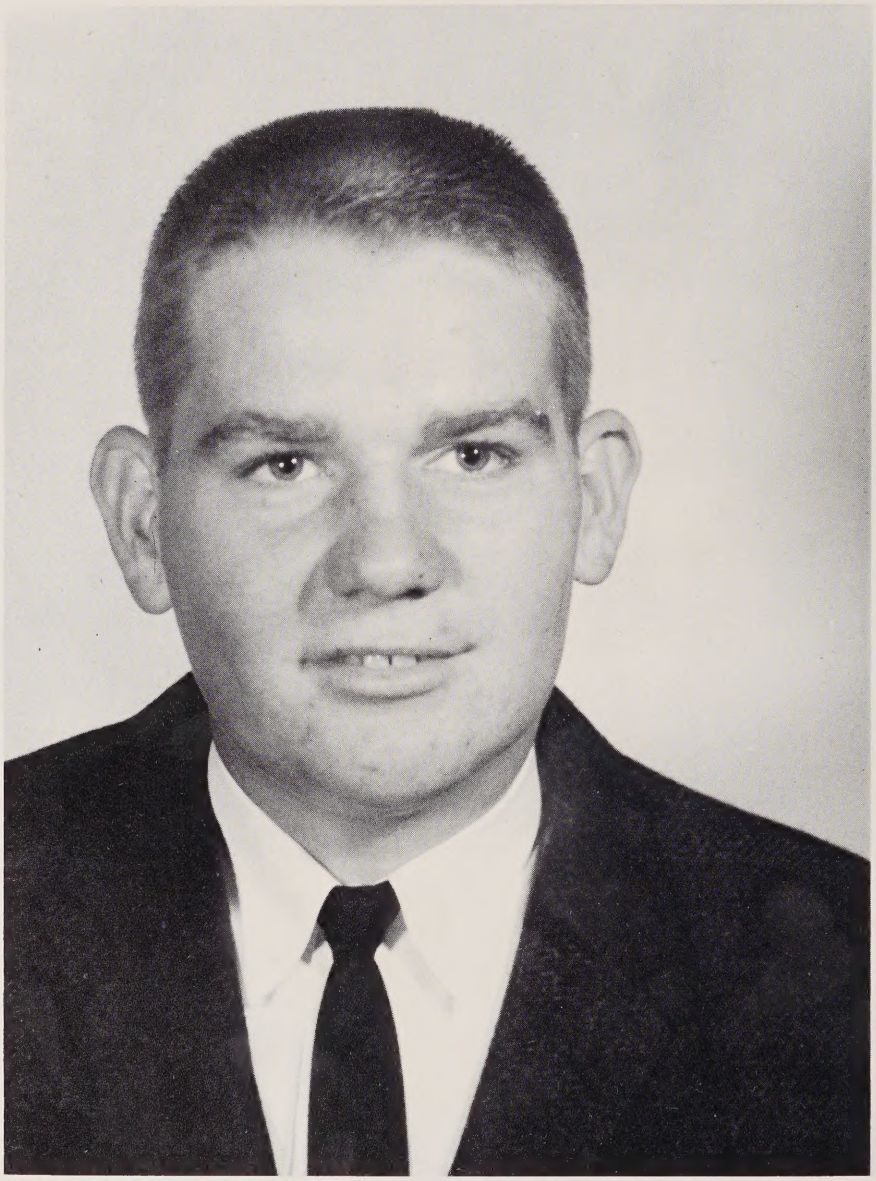
In Memoriam



ROBERT WAYNE TUCK
1948-1965

"None who e'er knew him can believe
him dead;
Though, should he die, they deem it well might be
His spirit took its everlasting flight
In summer's glory, by the sunset sea,
That onward through the Golden Gate
is fled.
Ah, where that bright soul is cannot be night."

R. W. Gilder

In Dedication

To one who has shown personal interest in all phases of our school life; to one whose happiness and friendly manner cause her to be loved by all students; to one who has served as our Business Education teacher and senior advisor, our counselor and friend, with sincere admiration and appreciation, to Mrs. Vickie B. Gilliam, we dedicate this, our 1966 HILLTOPPER.

Mr. W. C. Hopkins

To our principal, Mr. W. C. Hopkins, we express our appreciation for his help and co-operation on the completion of our annual. Because of his desire to help us become better citizens, he has always attempted to guide us in the right direction. We will long remember his kindness, generosity, and the interest shown to all students.

We also express our gratitude to Mrs. Jackson for her help.

Features

The air was filled with excitement as Miss Frances Murray was crowned Homecoming Queen by the out-going queen, Esther Carver, during the halftime festivities. Homecoming, sponsored by the Beta Club, was the highlight of football season.

As a climax to the Homecoming celebration, a semi-formal dance was held in the gym on Saturday night. The dance was enjoyed by both students and alumni. No one topped the dancing of Mascots Amy Gravitte and David Tingen.

Queen Gayla and King Richard

As the season changed to goblins and ghosts, our annual Halloween Carnival was again a success. There were the usual basketball and costume contests to the delight of the younger children. Teenagers spent most of their time dancing. Sophomores Gayla Wrenn and Richard Oakley won the King and Queen contest.

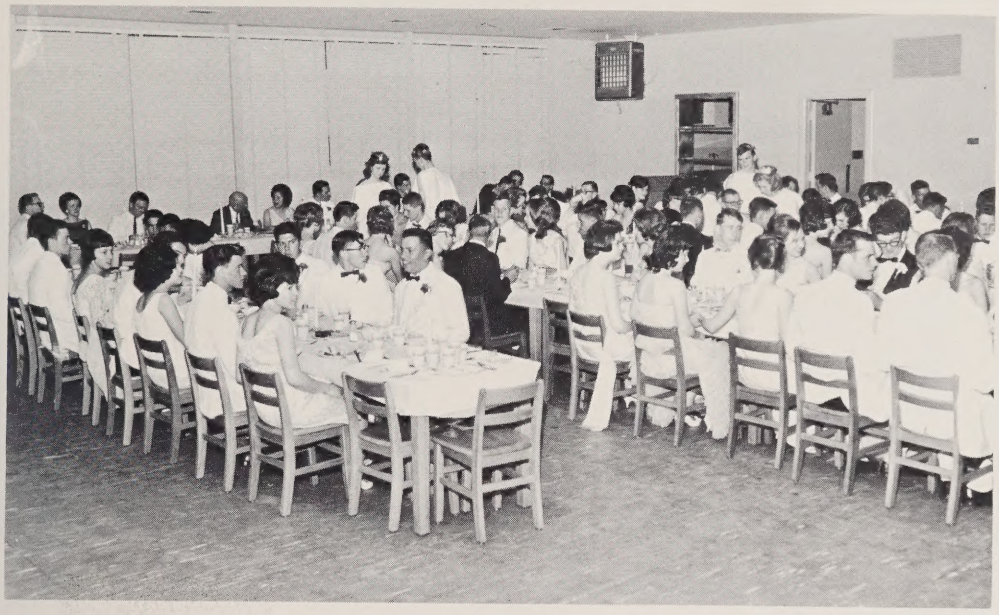
JUNIOR



SENIOR

Off On A Roman Holiday

The long awaited night arrived when Rome was brought to us by the Junior class. The banquet and prom were a great success. After a delicious meal everyone retired to the gym to dance the night away.

The fountain was the main attraction of the Holiday.

The Hilltoppers were hard to handle this year. Whatever the Hilltoppers lacked in football or basketball, they made up for it in baseball. Twice beating our cross-county rivals, which was a joyous event and most delightful in watching Helena's coach's famous pink towel turn blue, we played our best when we met Bartlett-Yancey on our home grounds, winning 3-2. Bartlett-Yancey won the second meeting, and Bethel Hill had to play Bartlett-Yancey in a play-off which the Hilltoppers lost. Jack Lowery's pitching was outstanding as was the "senior" infield and sportsmanship.

This year's team will be trying to match last year's team in spirit, as well as wins. It will lack the core of last year's senior team but, many Freshmen, Sophomores and Juniors are expected out for the team.
